General Local News.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 18, 1878.

Much cooler this morning.
Mr. Becker, on Griffin street, is making an addition to his shop.

Chills prevail to a considerable extent in many sections of this county.
Black Cashmires, and all kinds of dress goods, cheap, at E. Small's.

Box. - September 1st, 1878, to the wife of W. F. Wright a son, Charles.
Ladies' Cloaks, Ladies' Hats, and all kinds of Millinery goods, at E. Small's.

Mr. John L. Maury, of Allen'sville, spent several days in town last week.
Call at E. Small's Trade Palace and examine their wonderful and magnificent stock of goods.

The full term of the Ohio Criminal Court will begin next Monday and continue two weeks.
Men's Boys' and youth's clothing in endless variety, and at prices lower than ever, at E. Small's.

The woods will contain considerable mast, and squirrels in plenty are anticipated by our sportsmen.
Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps of all sorts and sizes, at prices that defy competition, at E. Small's.

Blackette, Comforts and Ladies' Shawls of all sorts and sizes, and at figures that can not be underbid, at E. Small's.
Mrs. Lucie T. Collins, of this place, accompanied by her son Randall, spent several days in Elizabethtown last week.

Misses Lizzie and Zerilda Johnson, of Pleasant Ridge, spent a day or two in town last week, visiting friends and relatives.
George Thompson, of Elm Lick, informs us that he has secured the school at Rickett's school-house-being the third term taught at that place.

The Hartford Cornet Band has been engaged to play for the fair at this place. They will be assisted by Prof. Wm. Bowden, of Jeffersonville.

The dental notice of Dr. H. S. Woods, of Litchfield, which appeared in last issue, should have read Criminal Court instead of Circuit Court.

Misses Celeste Shall and Loga Walker who have been absent for a week or more visiting friends in Bowling Green, returned home Monday evening.

GRAND FALL AND WINTER OPENING

Blankets, Cloaks, Ladies, Misses & Childrens Hats, Fancy Dress Goods, Jeans, Flannels & Linseys, Table Linen, Oil Cloths, Carpets, Trunks, Valices, etc.

A Full Line of Notions and Gents' Furnishing

Give us a call. No trouble to show goods, L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

Mrs. R. A. Stevens of No Creek had her wrist put out of place again, but she is suffering from it very much.

Mr. W. T. Smith, representing the wholesale and retail carriage and furniture house of Capt. F. L. Hall, Owensboro, is in town, the guest of the Arnold House.

MARRIED.—At the residence of Anderson Martin, September 8th, 1878, by Rev. J. W. Taylor, Mr. Boyd Crowder to Miss Mattie Edwards, daughter of James Edwards.

Ed. Blacklock, Esq., of South Carrollton, was in town last Saturday, the guest of the Hartford House. He called to see us while here, and had his name added to our list of subscribers.

Gip T. Berry, that urbane and polite young gentleman who represents the popular dry goods firm of Mackey, Nicot & Co., Evansville, in this part of the country, was in town last Friday.

Dr. V. M. Taylor, of McHenry, spent Sunday in town. The Doctor is a gentleman of attachment, and the attractions of Hartford are sufficient to produce visits from him quite often. Come again.

Master Willie Hoke and sister, Miss Potia, left last week for Louisville, where Miss Potia will remain during the winter. Willie will go to Annapolis, Maryland, October 1st, to enter naval school.

The first new corn we have heard of being ground this season, was grown by Jesse Shackett, living near Centertown, and ground by Moore & Wise. Jesse is an early bird, and consequently has early corn.

Mr. Wm. Caschier, living near Ceralvo, called to see us last Saturday. He is one of the substantial, well-to-do citizens of the county. Visits from such men are highly appreciated, as well as encouraging to us.

If you are so unfortunate as to be very large in size and thereby have trouble in being fitted in ready made clothing, go to J. Winter & Co., corner 3d and Market streets, Louisville, Ky., they have sizes up to 50, breast and waist.

A son of George Hoover, living near Buckhorn, killed a rattlesnake containing sixteen rattles. The snake was five feet and eight inches long and eleven inches in circumference at the largest place. Pretty large snake, that.

Mr. E. T. Williams has consolidated his stock of stoves and ware with that of his groceries. His house now commands the appearance of a wholesale establishment. He has just received a large lot of hardware.

George Quinn, Esq., of Sebree city, has been engaged to teach the school in district No. 19. He began teaching last Monday. The patrons and pupils of that district will find Mr. Quinn to be a pleasant gentleman and a first-class teacher.

Hon. E. D. Walker, Hon. Sam. E. Hill, J. F. Fogle, J. L. Collins, of Hartford, I. P. Barnard, Sam. P. Taylor, of Beaver Dam, S. L. Fulkerson, Hogg's Falls, and W. D. Coleman, county, were in attendance at the Greenville Convention last Thursday.

M. L. Weske, who was arrested by the deputy sheriff of Muhlenberg county last week upon a bench warrant from this county, upon the charge of "banding together for the purpose of intimidation," gave bond last Saturday for his appearance at Criminal Court.

E. T. Williams left to-day for Louisville, where he will buy a lot of nice groceries. He will also purchase a lot of nice articles for E. P. Thomas & Co., to be sold at the Fair Grounds during the fair—they having secured the exclusive privileges to sell refreshments.

The election last Wednesday, in ratification of an act of the Legislature, giving the citizens of the town of Hartford the right to vote to erect a suitable building and establish a "Graded School," carried by four majorities. The amount voted was five thousand dollars.

We notice quite a number of improvements in the side-walks around town. The one leading from Judge Mosely's to J. L. Collins was much needed, and will be quite a convenience to pedestrians in that end of the city. Mr. Caleb Crow has also built one from the main walk to his gate.

The Institute seems to be well attended by the teachers of the county. And, from the happy greetings and warm handshakes, we suppose all will meet next year with the same brotherly love, actuated by the desire to improve themselves as teachers.

We have seen Prof. W. L. Hawkins' diploma from the State Board of Examiners, entitling him to teach in any of the Common Schools of the State. We congratulate the Professor, and we think the committee merited. Prof. Hawkins has been teaching in this and adjoining counties for thirty years.

The Herald office has been added to from time to time, until now it is perhaps one of the most convenient offices in the Green River Country. Every description of job work done, from a visiting card, a full sized poster, in the latest styles, colored or plain, and furnished on short notice at bottom prices.

One of the most remarkable geniuses of our town is Sturman Massie, son of Charles Massie, Esq. Though undeveloped, there is a mine of mechanical talent in him. He has made numerous articles unexpected from one so young, and his latest production is a violin, which he undoubtedly will learn to play on.

Rev. W. W. Cook preached his last sermon at this place for this conference year, last Sunday. Although Bro. Cook has been confined to his room more or less of the time for several months past, and was scarcely able to be up, made a very able and forcible talk—full of pathos and practical utility.

Mr. James T. Taylor, of Barletts precinct, sent us a sample of his molasses made from sugar corn or sorghum one day last week, which is very fine, being clear and bright and free from any unpleasant taste. It would be very hard to distinguish it from New Orleans or sugar house molasses. He is making a quantity for sale.

One of the greatest curiosities of the upper end of the city is a large toad that regularly every evening hops into the kitchen, leaps into a chair, and by a low, not unusual croak, seems to beg for his supper, which is regularly furnished by the delighted children, of which "Billy" is quite a favorite. After which he billy hops off, and is seen no more until the next evening.

Col. A. Hogeland, of Louisville, Ky., lectured here last Tuesday evening, on the resources of the State. While the Colonel is not a polished orator and does not draw bright pictures of fancy, yet he handles this subject as it ought to be. His lecture bristled with facts, figures, statistics, &c., and showed plainly that we have the elements of wealth and greatness around us, if we would but utilize them.

We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of W. E. & I. N. Parrish, Owensboro, in this issue. They are live men and know how to appreciate the use of printers ink. Their book establishment is complete, and those wishing anything in their line would do well to give them a call. They buy in large quantities, and sell at very small margins. When you go to Owensboro give them a call.

Sudden Death.
Jack Hawkins, a son of J. A. Hawkins of Ellis' precinct, this county, came in from work on Monday last week and said he felt very curious. He dropped down and died in a very few minutes. He had not been sick previously and was supposed to be sound and well. He was a worthy industrious young man.

Alexander's Hotel.
When you go to the Exposition, go to the hotel. Don't fail to stop with Uncle Joe. His guests are always treated right, and apply to him for any and all needs. And all good dishes he does provide for those who at his table eat. They say it really is a treat to eat a meal with Uncle Joe. In numbers great and numbers small, and bed and board is furnished all. Two dollars a day is just the charge. This house is found on Market street—You always find it nice and neat. Its name is known, too, very well, as Alexander's new hotel. Proprietor—J. B. Alexander & Co., Louisville—why, that's Uncle Joe. Jones, Logan and Sullivan too. And the gentlemanly clerk that wait on you when you come to a trip you take. Do not forget these rhymes I make. Just try this house, you never will rue it, but afterwards will go to it.

MARRIED.—In Henderson county, last week, Mr. James Harp to Miss Rosa Going.

The taste for music early has of late days been growing. And here we see a useful Harp, that has been well set to doing. Nor is it strange, a weaving lass intent on work and warp. Concludes heretofore, all her life she's doing for her Harp.

The attractive advertisement on this page is an illustration of the way L. Rosenberg & Bro. do business. There is no half-way with them. Big bargains and low prices is a favorite motto of theirs. They do a huge business, and can afford to sell cheaply.

The Eagle Clock.

Visitors to the Louisville Exposition have an opportunity of witnessing, with charge, a mechanical production which coming generations will admire with wonder and in vain attempt to surpass. As the Germans regarded the famous Strasbourg clock four centuries ago, so we regard to-day this marvelous Eighth wonder, and only the record of coming ages can unfold the history of its eclipse. The magnitude of its conception, the grandeur of its suggestions, the completeness of its plan, challenge not only our admiration but our credulity. From the stars which stud the zodiac to the tide which ebbs and flows upon our shores, from the undeviating precision of the celestial to the unknown flight of the asteroids, no link is left imperfect till we grasp with clearer comprehension the whole "grand harmony of the spheres."

The Knife.

On last Saturday night, a number of the colored folks of town went to Beaver Dam to attend a party. On their return, two of them, Peter Hines and James Parks, had an altercation. James Parks, who was also in the wagon, interfered, when Hines turned on him with a knife, inflicting a severe wound on the arm, and cutting his clothing in several other places. The parties were promptly arrested by our efficient marshal, W. H. Griffin, and taken before his honor, W. H. Cummins, Police Judge, and tried. After hearing the evidence, a motion was made by the County Attorney to dismiss for breach and hold-for cutting in heat of passion. Blacklock and Parks were fined each $2.00 and costs. Hines in default of bail was committed to jail.

We laid aside the duties, cares and perplexities of printers life last Friday, and went to McHenry, our object being to solicit subscription, advertisements, etc., and do some inquiring. We had the pleasure while there, of meeting Messrs. W. G. Duncan & Bro., dealers in general merchandise, who are making quite an addition to their store house, preparatory to the reception of a large fall and winter stock. Sam. Williams, Esq., proprietor of the dry goods emporium, who, by the way, is a good looking fellow—one we can fully recommend to our lady friends. Messrs. McDowell & Bro., who have made quite an addition to the town recently, by the establishment of a drug store. Dr. V. M. Taylor who is a pleasant gentleman, and good physician. The Doctor has had an attack of—of chills recently, but is now convalescing. We were invited by that prince of millers, Mr. R. E. Paxton to take dinner with him, (which we did) where we met his wife, whose hospitality and generous nature is not surpassed in the Green River Country. We were very much pleased that the citizens of McHenry are generous, social and refined.

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want. v4n5-cow
